

If you like Ferguson Tractors, you might like to join FENA!

The choice of Ferguson enthusiasts

Begun by a small group of 21 Ferguson fans in 2001, FENA has become the organization of choice for North America's Ferguson owners, restorers, collectors, and enthusiasts.

We've grown in size to almost 1000 members in 49 states, Canada, and several overseas countries. In a recent survey, members gave FENA very high marks for value to members.

Benefits of membership in FENA

FENA is the only organization in North America devoted exclusively to Ferguson tractors, implements, and the Ferguson heritage.

Our popular Ferguson Furrows magazine is published five times annually. It features 36 pages of historical and technical articles, part sources, photos, practical information, free classified ads, and more. All back issues are available.

Ferguson Merchandise for sale includes shirts, hats, cups, flags, signs, a yearly calendar and a children's book, The Little Grey Fergie, as well as a CD of all Ferguson Furrows back issues.

The North American Ferguson Expo is held annually. Also, many of our members take their Fergies to any show within their area and host a Ferguson Show table. It is a great way to meet other Ferguson owners, to socialize and develop friendships, to get your questions answered, and to display your Ferguson tractors and implements.

A Great Social Media Presence

Our web site is your Ferguson tractor and implement information headquarters:

www.fergusonenthusiasts.org

www.fergusontractors.org

Both go to the same web site. Choose the one that is easier for you to remember.

We also have a Facebook group:

Ferguson Enthusiasts of North America

Personal Technical Assistance

Technical questions are answered by: Robert Sybrandy, r_sybrandy@yahoo.com

Something for everyone

Whether you own a Ferguson tractor and implements, collect Ferguson memorabilia, savor fond memories of a Ferguson in your youthful past, or simply appreciate the Ferguson history and heritage, FENA offers something to help you get the most out of your Ferguson experience.
